In-store technology

We offer the latest technology for reading currency in your store, and dispensing rolled coin and currency to your cashiers. This technology can be configured to meet your specific needs.

- ∴ Our depository pedestals use bill reading technology to eliminate cash drop envelopes. Cash drops are digitally verified, the instant the cashier drops the cash. No need for secondary verification.
- ∴ Our unique, patented technology dispenses rolled coin without the use of plastic tubes, which means your manager spends less time loading change. Our systems hold about four times as much inventory as any similar system, so your manager seldom has to share access to the change fund.
